FAHEY SEES EARLY U. S. AID FOR FRANCE

Germany Not a Preferred Nation, Says Chamber of Commerce Delegate.

PLANS FOR CONFERENCE

Five Nations Will Thrash Out
Economic Problems in Paris.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD, Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
PARIS, May 23.—John Fahey, formerly president of the International Chamber of Commerce, who is here making arrangements for 148 American delegates who will arrive in Paris on June 17 for the meeting of the International Chamber of Commerce, characterized as non-sensical the idea that the United States is considering extending relief to Germany before she aids France. Mr. Fahey insists that more Frenchmen should go to America and see for themselves what she can and wishes to do for France.

"America is not an inexhaustible granary of abundance," Mr. Fahey said. "Our difficulties are scarcely less serious than those of the Frenchman. Relief for each country should be made collectively. Each should assume its own task and as much as possible help its neighbor."

In an interview with Mr. Fahey which is published in the French newspaper, he says there is not a country in the world for which Americans have a greater affection than they have for France. He says that the International Chamber of Commerce will not be connected with politics or diplomacy in any way, but will be a practical international body, designed to stabilize exchange and to provide each country with the materials it needs.

The admission of Germany to membership in the chamber has not yet been considered, but the question probably will be laid before the delegates when they meet here. About 500 delegates are expected to attend the conference from Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and the United States. The most vital economic problems will be thrashed out. The business interests of the five nations, according to Mr. Fahey, feel that the creation of an international chamber of commerce will do much to solve the serious economic questions confronting the world to-day.

BRITISH PEACE WITH RUSSIA DEMANDED

the East, and especially none in our Mesopotamian enterprises, revolving as they do, around the oil fields there.

Referring to the speech a few days ago by Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Mr. Garvin said: "He and Marshal Foch are thorough friends, and they are both as confident as professional soldiers as Bernhardi. He proclaimed the other day the cheerful renewal of bloodshed and the everlasting ordinance of war. This real militarism is priding itself like a champion and craving its 'royal' war. But modern democracy, the Field Marshal may be assured, means to bring the neck of that bird."

"Even victorious war does not serve its former purpose. It leads to insupportable taxation and social convulsions. The Conservatives, formerly the chief supporters of war, now show the most resolute."

KRASSIN HURRIEDLY LEAVES DENMARK

Departure Caused by French Request for His Arrest.

PARIS, May 23.—Bolshhevik circles in Paris declared that the hurried departure of Gregory Krassin, the Russian Bolshhevik Minister of Trade and Commerce, from Copenhagen for Stockholm, was caused by a request by the French Government to the Danish Government that Krassin be placed under arrest for plotting and espionage.

One hundred and fifteen French men and women, repatriated from Russia, arrived in Paris this morning by way of Southampton and Havre. All of them had been at one time or another arrested and placed in jail by the Bolshheviks. They say that Petrograd is starving.

DENIKINE'S CASPIAN SEA FLEET CAPTURED

Bolsheviks Take Six Cruisers and Seven Transports.

LONDON, May 23.—After the Bolshhevik forces occupied Enzeli (Persia) last week, according to a Bolshhevik communication received here from Moscow, they captured Denikine's entire Caspian Sea fleet, consisting of six cruisers and seven transports. A large quantity of war material from the Caucasus which had belonged to Gen. Denikine is also reported to have been taken by the Bolshheviks.

Bolshhevik troops in the Polish-Ukrainian battle zone continue to make progress, adds the communication, which bears Saturday's date. The capture of a number of villages is recorded. The communication says:

"Our troops have occupied Ushinsky, seventy miles west of Kam. In the direction of Molodechno violent fighting is going on about the region southwest of Vseslavino.

"Our troops crossed to the right bank of the Dvina River in the region of the confluence of the River Sogutich and occupied a number of villages. In the Izhmura region (west of Minsk) we have occupied the towns of Bogushevichy and Dofino. We captured Lubenichy, in the Bobruisk region.

"On the Caspian Sea after the occupation of Enzeli (Persia) we captured the whole white (Russian) fleet of six cruisers and seven transports and enormous quantities of war material evacuated from the Caucasus, where it had belonged to Gen. Denikine."

SIR JOHN TAYLOR OUT OF DUBLIN CASTLE

Retirement Indicates New Policy in Irish Affairs.

LONDON, May 23.—It is officially announced that Sir John Taylor has retired from his position as Under Secretary in the office of the Chief Secretary for Ireland and is to be succeeded "during the present pressure of business" by A. W. Cope, Second Secretary to the Minister of Pensions. Sir John has forty years of service to his credit and is looked upon by the Irish as one of those who maintained the old traditions of Dublin Castle.

The London Times says that Sir John's knowledge extended to the turbulent days of the eighties, and it is believed the advice which he tendered has been in favor of drastic measures. His retirement, add the Times, will be regarded in Ireland as evidence that more moderate counsels are likely to prevail in the future.

The Times concludes "There is little doubt that the administration machine of Dublin Castle has fallen into disre-

GERMAN WAR PLOTS HERE ALL KNOWN

Von Papen Says Theft of Albert's Portfolio Bared Murder Schemes.

GEN. WOOD WARNED HIM

Said U. S. Knew All About U-
Boat Raid Aimed at Destruction of New York.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, May 23.—"If you succeed in measurably restricting American deliveries of war materials to the Entente until the end of 1915 we will in all probability have won the war."

Gen. von Falkenhayn, then chief of the German General Staff, wrote thus to Capt. Franz von Papen, German Military Attaché in Washington, in the spring of that year. The statement, which comprised part of the evidence submitted by Von Papen in a recent hearing before a parliamentary commission, was amplified by him to the extent that he directed his efforts to this end.

Von Papen declared he informed Gen. von Falkenhayn when he returned after his recall from Washington: "If you do not succeed in keeping the United States out of the enemy coalition you will have lost the war."

After detailing the plans to secure a corner in war materials in the United States, control factories, divert labor and prevent munitions from reaching the Entente, Von Papen said that the theft of Dr. Albert's portfolio containing outlines of the scheme brought the secret into the Entente's possession. In the course of further evidence Von Papen touched upon the alleged unneutral attitude of official quarters in Washington, the American courts and political circles and declared that the British Military Attaché was permitted to operate unmolested and given the support of official quarters and the American secret service.

Gen. Wood once asked me to call on him at Governors Island," Von Papen testified. "He was very cordial, and smilingly told me: 'Several persons have called on me and given me a detailed plan of a plot which you, Captain, are supposed to have worked out. The scheme provides for the landing of German U-boats at New York, which would then proceed to blow up the subway tunnels and the city's water mains. We have your complete plans, where you propose to place your explosives and what points you will attack. Complete evidence is in my possession. You may see it if you are interested.'"

"We did not waste a single word over the matter, but the incident shows the methods used against us at the time."

"Orphan" Dollars!

A forewarning
to persons with money to leave

It does seem strange. But thousands and thousands of dollars are seeking their owners—whereabouts unknown. These funds consist of unclaimed deposits of which practically every bank has a considerable number.

Disregarding personal and corporation deposits, in literally thousands of cases, it is found that funds deposited by guardians, executors or trustees remain unclaimed.

To illustrate—

In two single lists of unclaimed deposits recently published by two New York banks we discover appreciable amounts unclaimed by—

"W. R." Guardian	Estate of "J. F."
"E. G. C." Trustee	Estate of "P. M."
Estate of "B. M. C."	Estate of "J. R. M."
Estate of "F. S."	Estate of "T. N."
Estate of "J. G. C."	Estate of "H. W."
Estate of "J. D."

Perhaps such inaccuracies of accounting should be pardoned. Perhaps it is too much to expect that average individuals can successfully fill all the varied functions of executors and trustees. But we assume that you personally would prefer to protect your heirs by an assurance of exact—and prompt—accounting. With that in mind, may we suggest a discussion of the many advantages in naming—
